Welcome to MetMUNC Delegate Training!!

:) Meets every Wednesday and Thursday

What are the fundamental units of committee?

What is Parliamentary Procedure?

- Formal debate we use in committee
 - Example: Decorum (order in committee)
- Consists of POINTS and MOTIONS
 - There are different points and motions that only chairs use and only delegates use

Why do we have Parliamentary Procedure?

- Promotes order within a committee
- Ensures that debate is flowing properly and in an orderly fashion
- Points are so delegates have a clear understanding of committee
- Motions further ideas made in debate

Motions- used to promote the flow of debate

- Motion to open debate
- Motion to set the agenda
- Motion to set the speaker's time (most disruptive)
- Motion to start the speaker's list

Points- used for personal use of delegates

- Point of Information
- Point of Inquiry
- Point of Clarification
- Point of Order/ Point of Parliamentary Procedure
- Point of Personal Privilege

Tips for Public Speaking

- Remain calm! Everyone is here to support you and is not judgemental
- Try and keep your hands by your side and refrain from fidgeting, swaying, playing with hair, etc.
- Project your voice and enunciate so everyone can hear you!
- Think about what you're going to say before you speak

Tip for this debate:

- Be aware of when debate is getting redundant
 - Try to take a stand that is more controversial (Devil's advocate)
 - Introduce aspects of the topics that have not been discussed
 - If you agree with a point, don't just restate; rather, add your own elaboration

DON'T BE SCARED TO SPEAK! YOUR OPINION IS NEVER WRONG!

Topic Options

1. Should school time be later?
2. Should kids have social media? Should parents monitor it?
3. Should we celebrate Columbus Day?
4. Should girl's and boy's sports teams compete in the same league?
